

Foreword

This report constitutes the proceedings of the 2001 edition of the Text REtrieval Conference, TREC 2001, held in Gaithersburg, Maryland, November 13–16, 2001. The conference was co-sponsored by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA), and the Advanced Research and Development Activity (ARDA). Approximately 175 people attended the conference, including representatives from 21 different countries. The conference was the tenth in an on-going series of workshops to evaluate new technologies for text retrieval and related information-seeking tasks. Eighty-seven groups submitted retrieval results to one or more of the workshop's tracks.

The workshop included plenary sessions, discussion groups, a poster session, and demonstrations. Because the participants in the workshop drew on their personal experiences, they sometimes cited specific vendors and commercial products. The inclusion or omission of a particular company or product implies neither endorsement nor criticism by NIST. Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in the individual papers are the authors' own and do not necessarily reflect those of the sponsors.

The sponsorship of the U.S. Department of Defense is gratefully acknowledged, as is the tremendous work of the program committee and the track coordinators.
