APPENDIX B

This appendix contains the system description forms filled out by each participating group. These forms are meant to supplement the system papers and contain a standard and formatted description of system features and timing aspects.